ATTACHMENT A

April 18, 1975

Honorable William E. Colby
Director of Central Intelligence
Washington, D.C. 20505

Dear Bill:

Since March, 1973, I have been holding in my safe the originals of the enclosed materials. They were deposited with me for safekeeping by Samuel Adams, who was then a CIA employee. Sam, in my judgment, has been a first-rate public servant and I would hope there is a continuing place for him and people like him in the intelligence community.

Would you be kind enough to have an appropriate staff employee go over the enclosed copies of materials and delete any information which the Agency feels should currently remain classified, returning the remainder to me at the earliest opportunity.

Keep up the good work.

Sincerely,

Paul N. McCloskey, Jr.
